Thursday, June 3. 1703

From the Leiden Gazette, dated June 5.

Rome, May 12.

ON Sunday last the Pope said Mass himself in his private Chappel in the Vatican, and distributed the Communion to his Domesticks; And we are assur'd his Holiness intends to continue to do the like, the first Sunday of every Month. On the 9th he heard Mass in the Cathedral of St. Peter. 2 days ago he assited in a Congregation of the Inquisition; He was likewise present at an Examination of Bishops, that are to be propos'd in a Confistory which will be held on Monday next. He likewise gave Audience this Week to several Forreign Ministers, and has held several Conferences on the present Juncture of Affairs, which give him a great deal of Uneasiness. Cardinal Negroni has offer'd to lend his Holiness 200000 Crowns on certain Conditions, to suply in part the Urgent Occasions of the Apostolical Chamber. The Count de Lambreg, the Imperial Ambassador, has notified to the Pope the Death of the Arch-Dutchess Maria Joseph. The Cardinal de Bouillon is shortly expected here, to discharge the Functions of Dean of the Sacred College. On the 5th and 6th at Night a new Earthquake was felt which did little hurt in this City, but Tivoli and Rieti has suffer'd considerably by it.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated May 31.

Madrid, May 12. The King signified his Pleasure to the Principality of Asturia, that he expected they should raise at their own Expence a Regiment of 600 Men, according to the Example of other Provinces; But the said Principality of Asturia pleaded inability, and desir'd to be excus'd. Advice is come to Court by an Express from the Governour of Cadix, that there is an Insurrection at Baxa in Andalousia, on occasion of the levying of Men by Force to serve His Majesty. That the People of that City have kill'd the Corregidor, the Alcaide, and other Officers. And that the Governour of Cadix has been oblig'd to send 600 Men Horse and Foot to quiet this Commotion. The Decay of Trade, and other Calamities occasion'd by the present War, have occasion'd a General Murmuring throughout the Kingdom. Particularly the People as well as the Court are extremely concern'd at the Prohibition that is intended in Holland of all Commerce and Correspondence between the Dutch and Spaniards. We begin to suspect the King of Portugal is in the Interest of the Enemy.

Hague, June 4. The Placart set forth by the States General forbidding all Commerce with France or Spain, runs thus,

' The States General of the United Provinces of the Netherlands to all who shall see these Presents Greeting. We having judg'd it expedient for the Good of these Provinces, to put a stop to all Commerce with the Countries under the Dominion of France and Spain; have accordingly thought fit to order and decree, and by these presents do order and decree, that our Subjects who after the First of June in the present Year 1703, shall be discover'd to convey or send from these Provinces into any Town or Place belonging to the Kings of France or Spain, any sort of Merchandise or Goods, without Exception, either by Sea or Land; As also that our Subjects, who after the said First of June, shall send for, bring, or receive any Merchandise or Effects of any sort whatsoever, none excepted, from any Place subject to the Kings of France or Spain; shall incur the Confiscation of the said Goods, and pay a Fine of four times the Value, besides the Ship, &c. which shall carry those Goods; and in case the Offenders are not able to pay the said Fines, Corporal Punishment shall be inflicted on them, according as the Judge before whom the Cause is try'd shall appoint; the least Punishment shall be publick Whipping. The Fines shall be distributed, a third to the Informer, a third to the Officers of the Court in which the Cause is try'd, and the other third to the Publick Treasury to be employed in the War, &c.

There are about 11 or 12 Sail of Vessels fitting up for Russia, and several Ships for the East-Country are now waiting for Convoy.

Buxton Master; and the Samuel and Elizabeth, Phillip Minory Master, all from Lisbon.
